Prologue

Although Carver College is still considered young in comparison with most junior colleges, it has made tremendous progress in all phases of its development.

Each year begins with an influx of new students who are eager to broaden themselves educationally, spiritually and morally. The Orientation Week is especially interesting since the new students must be introduced to their new surroundings and studies. Then there follows a stream of activities: clubs, the Christmas dance, sports, May Day, Junior-Senior Prom, and finally Commencement.

We, the Carveran Staff, do offer this yearbook as a record of happy days spent at Carver College. We challenge you to read it, analyze it, and, in so doing re-live with us the accomplishments of the Carver family, 1958-59.

In Memoriam

HUGH YOUNG BARRINGER
A Member of the 1958-59 Freshman Class
1929-1958

"Strong son of God, immortal Love,
Whom we, that have not seen thy face,
By faith alone, embrace,
Believing where we cannot prove;

Thine are these orbs of light and shade;
Thou madest Life in man and brute;
Thou madest Death; and lo, thy foot
Is on the skull which thou hast made.

Thou wilt not leave us in the dust;
Thou madest man, he knows not why,
He thinks he was not made to die;
And thou has made him: thou art just."

FROM IN MEMORIAM
ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON

Dedication

With deep humility and sincere appreciation we dedicate this 1958-1959 edition of the Carveran to Mr. Joseph F. Towns, a pleasant, affable individual who has been a part of Carver College faculty for five years. As an instructor in the social science department and as the school photographer, he has demonstrated his ability to make us aware of our surroundings and of the need to know and understand human values. For years he worked almost single-handedly to produce our annual, the Carveran. Mr. Towns has a smile that is contagious and a disposition which is comparable to Job's.

Mr. Towns is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University and holds the Master of Arts degree in economics from the University of Michigan. He has done further graduate work at New York University.

When West Charlotte High School was organized, Mr. Towns became one of the first teachers and has served in the social studies department there ever since.

Mr. Towns is a great worker in and supporter of many promotional organizations in this community, and is counted as one of our most effective citizens. His service to religious and civic groups is unexcelled.

It is fitting, therefore, that we, the Carveran staff, dedicate this record of our activities and progress to Mr. Towns with the best wishes of the administrative staff, faculty and student body.

The Director

Edward Howard Brown

A Message from the Director

CARVER COLLEGE

501 SOUTH ALEXANDER STREET
CHARLOTTE 6, NORTH CAROLINA

EDWARD H. BROWN
DIRECTOR

"Grant me the self-awareness to know how far I can go, what I can do, and what I cannot;

Grant me the judgment to channel my energies into those areas which best utilize my abilities and do not require talents which I do not possess;

Grant me the wisdom to cheerfully accept error as a part of my experiences, that I may grow and develop and avoid repetition of mistakes;

Grant me the humility to learn from others, even from those younger, less experienced, or of humbler station than I;

Grant me the courage to state positions whenever they are necessary and to avoid rashness when they are not;

Grant me the sensitivity to gauge the reactions of others that I may modify my actions to meet the needs of those affected;

Grant me the consideration to recognize the worth of each individual, and to respect all those with whom I have contact, without stifling their development nor exalting myself at their expense;

Grant me the perspicacity to acknowledge that I am not as good as effective as my subordinates or the people to whom I am assigned, so that they can help me by holding me back;

Grant me the tolerance to recognize mistakes as a part of the learning and to stand behind my subordinates, accepting responsibility for their actions;

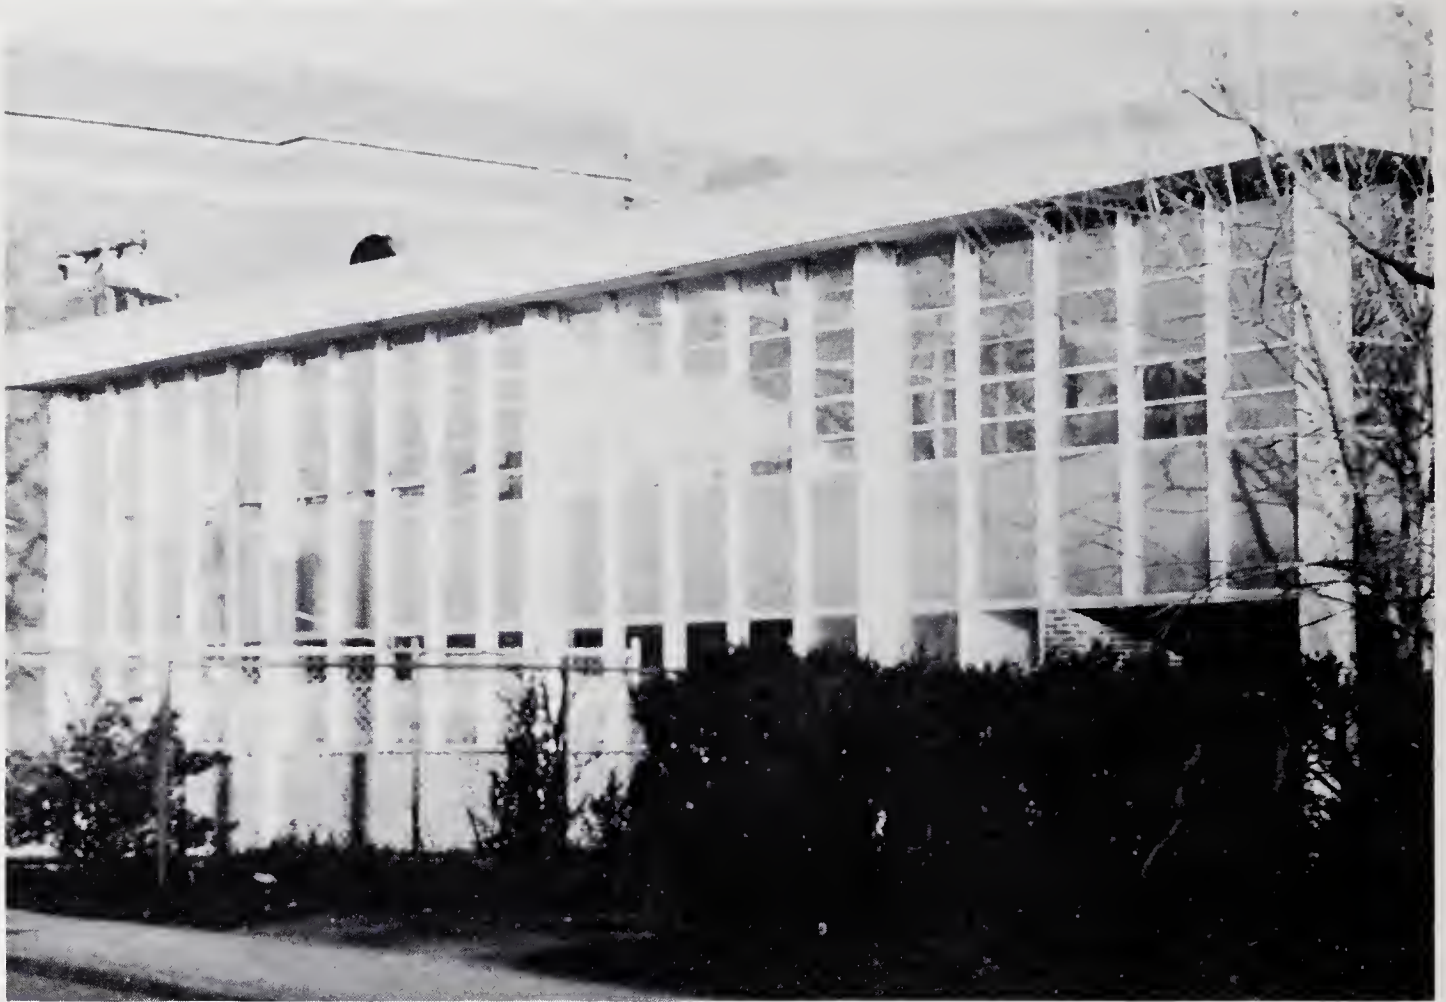

Grant me the insight to level a personal goal so high, that my life may have more meaning and satisfaction and that I may avoid capricious action under the pressures of expediency;

Grant me the patience to live realistically with my circumstances, striving always for the better, but recognizing the limits of too rapid or too drastic change;

Grant me all these things, Dear Lord, that I may live a more useful life, through serving my fellow men, and through them, serve thee.

—Edward H. Brown

Objectives

Believing in the dignity and worth of every person and in equal opportunity for the development of individual capacity, Carver College desires to serve the individual and the community by offering to young people and adults educational experiences for enriched living, cultural development, and responsible citizenship. Its major aim is to provide for young people a well-balanced general education program which will prepare them in specific requirements for junior standing in a senior college or university, for entrance to a professional school, and for the completion of the Associate in Arts degree. The adult program is designed for continued development in the fields of vocational, cultural, and general education.
